FROSTY WINDSHIELDS spring from foggy minds. Safety-conscious drivers are noted for having neither defect.

Council Meets Monday To Decide On Structure

Development Council will meet Monday afternoon from 2 till 5:30 p.m. in Clinton Hall Lounge with the main issue being the setting up of a new structure for the functioning of the Council.

The new setup will primarily be on a committee basis, according to Pastor Martin Ackermann, development director.

Form Eleven Committees

Committees to be represented would be Alumni, Faculty, Board of Associates, Castle Club, Parents, Church Relations, Community, Foundations, Estate Planning, Science Advisory and Students.

In the Students Committee, the student body president and vice president will serve on the Development Council. The membership of the committee will be made up of the Student Senate itself. This committee will serve as a communications system through which student opinion to the Council can be known and the Council programming to the students.

To Interpret Program

Helping to interpret the college's program to the student body and the community will be another function as well as assisting other committees in the fulfillment of their responsibilities wherever there is an overlapping of functions.

"Development Council is going into this committee-type structure to function more effectively and to be so organized that they can take place in fulfilling long-range plans for Wartburg College which are presently being studied by the Board of Regents," said Pastor Ackermann.

Vacation Tues.; Religion Thurs.

Convocation next Tuesday has been canceled. Students will have the hour free, according to Al Snook, student body president, because the scheduled student body meeting will not be held.

Thursday's religious convocation will feature Pastor Roy Wingate, pastor of the First English Lutheran Church at Iowa City, as main speaker. He will speak on the topic "What Difference Does It Make?"

According to Pastor Herman Diers, campus chaplain, Pastor Wingate bas been very well received by students of SUI and is able to communicate with them effectively.

Becker, Gremmels Go To Chicago Meeting

Pres. and Mrs. C. H. Becker and Pastor Robert C. Gremmels, alumni director, will travel to Chicago Thursday to attend a meeting of Chicago alumni.

Dr. Becker will bring the group up to date on the progress of Wartburg, and Gremmels will speak on the recent developments of the Alumni Association. Gremmels will also discuss the possibility of establishing an alumni chapter tbere, since there are about 175 alumni in the area.

Two past student body presidents, Pastor Paul Schubert ('52) and Pastor John W. Kelly ('53), are co-chairmen of the arrangements committee in Chicago, according to Gremmels.

Regents To Meet Tuesday

Tuition, scholarships and building additions will be the major issues before the Board of Regents at its annual fall meeting Tuesday.

If all recommendations are passed, tuition will be raised, some scholarships will be increased and plans will begin for construction of one or two wings onto Clinton Hall.

Other items on the agenda are a report on plans for the college to become incorporated and routine matters, according to Pres. C. H. Becker, who met with the executive committee Oct. 26 to plan the meeting.

Several alternative recommendations on increasing tuition have been made by Dr. Becker.

Parish Scholarship May Stop

Either the parish scholarships (a $25 scholarship to each student from The American Lutheran Church each semester) will be abolished and the tuition raise will be smaller, or the scholarships will be retained and the tuition raised accordingly, said President Becker. It is up to the Board to decide.

"Tuition is now considerably lower here than in all the other schools of the present ALC," he said.

He added that there were no plans to increase the cost of room, board or activity fee.

A recommendation of the Scholarship Committee will also be considered. President Becker and the committee are asking for an increase in the High School Honor Scholarship from $150 to $200. They are also requesting that class scholarships be raised from $100 to $150.

Clinton And Union May Get Additions

Dr. Becker is also making recommendations for additions to Clinton Hall and the Student Union.

"I am asking the Board of Regents to decide whether to instruct the Building Committee to study the advisability of completing the men's dormitory, either one or two additions to Clinton Hall, with money borrowed from the federal government," said Becker.

The two units would be wings on the north and south ends of Clinton Hall.

Dr. Becker said that he is recommending that Wartburg ask for a 100 per cent federal loan on a 40-year amortization basis. This means that the loan would be paid back gradually over a 40-year period.

He said that such funds bave been available in the past for income-producing buildings, but that Wartburg had not used any federal money as yet.

College Would Borrow For Union, Too

"I am also recommending that the Building Committee be instructed to study and plan a major addition to the Student Union with money borrowed from the federal government on an amortization basis," said Becker.

The addition would be quite extensive and might possibly house publications among other things.

Board of Regents will also hear a report on plans for the college to become incorporated under a different corporation charter. The Board will discuss the question but will not have to act on it, according to Becker.

Plans Being Made

"Arrangements are now being made with officers of the Board of Education and officers of the Board of Trustees of The American Lutheran Church to complete the incorporation of Wartburg College under a new charter," said Becker.

Tbis would mean little change from the present corporation, according to Becker. The present corporation was formed in the 1930's and has the name of Wartburg Normal College. Under the new corporation every member of tbe new ALC would be a shareholder in the college, said Becker.

Now, only members of the pre-merger ALC are shareholders. There is no hindrance because of the old corporation, according to Becker.

Aid In Getting Property

Business Manager Herb Engelbrecht said that the new corporation would make it easier to acquire property and aid in getting monetary gifts.

Members of the Board of Regents are Pastor L. L. Belk, Le Mars; Mrs. M. G. Christensen, Cedar Falls; Mrs. Henry Graven, Greene; Pastor Dean Kilgust, Green Bay, Wis.; Pastor W. C. Langholz, Peoria, Ill.; Fred Lentz, Beatrice, Neb.; Fred Miller, Fontanelle.

Miss Hildegard Moehl, Cbicago; Pastor H. C. Schiffler, Ankeny; Pastor Erwin Schlachtenhaufen, Des Moines; Henry Schwerin, Flanagan, Ill.; Pastor Luther Sherer, Avoca, Neb.; Walter G. Voecks, cbairman, Waverly; William Voigts, Waverly; and Dean Winkjer, Williston, N. D.

President Becker, Dean of Faculty J. O. Cbellevold, Registrar Mattie Harms and Admissions Head Fred Tbompson.

CONSUL, EXPLORER, SENATOR

3 Speakers Discuss World Situation

By Darrell Jobman

Three well-qualified men talking on one subject — politics and the international situation — gave Wartburg students and faculty, as well as numerous area residents, authoritative reports from three angles during the last week.

Senior Iowa Senator Bourke B. Hickenlooper spoke on "Foreign Policy," German consul Friedrich Ruth talked on "Re-unification" and explorer-adventurer Neil Douglas discussed "The Iron Curtain — Inside and Out." Douglas spoke at a Special Artist Series Thursday, the other two at convos.

World In Critical Time

Senator Hickenlooper, Iowa governor from 1942-44, said tbat tbe world is going through one of those periods now that could alter the direction of humanity in the future, just as the Greeks and Romans went through the same eras.

More specific in an interview tban in his speecb, Hickenlooper, a member of the important Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said that United States leadership was not as good as it should be.

Hickenlooper also attacked Prime Minister Nehru for bis neutralist policy. He said that he could have no respect for Nehru if he stood for nothing.

Hickenlooper also said that he did not approve of aid to India under the present neutral policy because India seems to be neutral more on the side of the Russians than toward us.

Tito Deserves Aid

Hickenlooper approved of aid to Yugoslavia because he felt that Yugoslav President Tito is a thorn in the sides of Russians.

Hickenlooper opposed loans to Communist - inclined British Guiana and Ghana's Nkrumah and added that Ghana's Volta Dam project loan had been called off because of Communist leanings.

He also predicted that if Red China were admitted to the United Nations, that international organization might break up because of U. S. change in attitude.

Douglas Shows Lives

Douglas, with the aid of an amazing film whicb he took all along the Communist-Western border, presented an excellent picture of life on each side of tbe Iron Curtain.

Douglas said that we were helping the Communists in several ways, tbough we may not realize it. First, he cited the breaking up of families in the United States in home life and activities, an objective of Lenin's philosopby.

Our second fault is that we are getting into the state of thinking of reacbing out and the government will give to us, according to Douglas.

Douglas Has Points

To defeat the dedication of Communism to take us over, Douglas has proposed 14 points.

His suggestions are tbat we:

(1) Become Americans dedicated with our lives to maintaining the freedom for which our forefathers fought.

(2) Realize that this can only be done by defeating Communism completely.

(3) Begin by urging that Communism and its history and objectives be taught in schools.

(4)Urge building of a much stronger propaganda program.

(5) Insist that our story of freedom is constantly broadcast to the world by every means.

Need Underground

(6) Urge the organization of an underground force, not only in Russia, but in all the captive nations.

(7) Urge our Government to realize that the Communists do not negotiate but use negotiations to gain an advance of Communism, and to deal with them boldly even though it means a threat of nuclear war.

(8) Demand tbat our foreign aid be completely changed from "bullets and blank checks" to trained economic and engineering assistance.

(9) Insist that our ambassadors be career men wbo understand the language of tbe country and have the ability to be diplomatic in the true sense.

Uncover Communists

(10) Insist that tbe Communists active at high levels in tbis country be uncovered.

(11) Realize that we cannot improve the welfare of the masses by the destruction of individualism.

(12) Demand that we discontinue growing to be a welfare state where all look to the Government for money and belp.

(13) Determine that our love for America and our pride reach down to the individual level, knowing that this is our America.

(14) Return to closer family life.

Two Things Stop Russians

Dr. Rutb, member of the German consulate in Cbicago, said tbat two things kept the Russians from advancing farther than they did after World War II.

He listed the Marsball Plan, started immediately after the war to restore the economic situation, and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, a defensive alliance of Western powers begun in 1948, as vital factors in limiting Communist expansion.

Ruth said re-unification at present was possible, but only under Soviet terms. Unification of Europe bas replaced reunification of Germany for the present, he said.

FROM THE EDITOR'S CHAIR

New Ideas Offered In Controversy

We give up. We surrender. We have lost one battle but not the war — at least not yet.

Several years ago the Trumpet campaigned for a stoplight at the College Hill Corner, but the issue was vetoed by state authorities and the city because the side streets were deadend roads and because of the inconvenience of the driver going on Bremer Avenue, which also serves as U.S. 218 and Iowa 3 Highways.

We won't give up, but this year we're back with several modified ideas that would not be at all hard to make realistic.

First, we propose that the city council prohibit parking within one-half block of the intersection. Second, we suggest that the state and city install a flashing yellow light above the intersection.

Not only is it dangerous for the driver to get onto Bremer Avenue from either side street, but pedestrians also face a hazard in trying to get across the street.

If cars were not parked within one-half block of the intersection, it would make it easier for drivers from both directions and pedestrians at least to see the danger.

We've been lucky. No one has ever been hit on that corner and there hasn't been a collision there yet. The best way to prevent danger is to eliminate danger. Therefore, eliminating parking would be a necessary step.

A flashing light that is on during the busiest parts of the day (from 7:30 a.m. until 10:30 p.m.) would also be a valuable addition in the prevention of accidents and loss of life.

A flashing yellow light would not hinder the flow of traffic. Its main purpose would be to slow traffic down and to remind motorists to be cautious.

Estimated cost of such a warning light would be only $72, not counting the cost of installation. Perhaps the college, since most students and faculty members use the intersection constantly, might be prevailed upon to provide some of the funds for the light.

We've lost before, but we'll keep trying. Eliminate parking. Install flashing yellow warning light. These two are important. So is a human life.

Players Applauded

Though amateurs, Wartburg Players outdid the professional actors of the Cleveland Play House in comparing the two plays that have been given this fall. At least that seems to be the conclusion of a number on this campus.

The entire cast did an excellent job in "The Skin of Our Teeth," better than might be expected of college amateurs. Standards of the Cleveland Play House in performing "Hedda Gabler" several weeks ago were below what many had expected.

In last week's review several important characters were erroneously omitted from the list of those who were praised. Add to the praiseworthy group of Don Ehlers, Kay Knopf and Don Hughes the names of the other two main characters, Kathryn Koob and Donnie Inman. As did the others, these two also deserve congratulations.

New Slant On Wartburg Is Given By Mr. Mum

This week the column takes on a homey atmosphere and concentrates on some of our college traditions and landmarks. Possibly some of the description is a little twisted, due primarily to too many times around the course. With this in mind, I have christened this column "Mum's the World at Wartburg."

Senates Different In Similar Schools

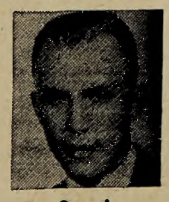
By Al Snook

Last weekend the Wartburg Student Senate attended an informal discussion with the Luther College Executive Committee.

Discussion centered around the differences in the Student Government setup of the two schools. Many of us were surprised to see the differences in governmental setup of two such similar colleges.

Ours Based On Classes

Our Senate representation, excluding student body officers, is set up on a class representation basis, while Luther's Executive Committee is set up strictly on the size of the student body. We have four senators from each class, but Luther has one representative for each one hundred students.



Snook

Contrary to an article in last week's Trumpet, Luther does have an organized Senate. However, its Senate is much larger than ours. What we call Senate, they call Executive Committee.

Forty On Luther Senate

Their Senate is composed of the 16 elected representatives plus representatives from the brotherhoods and societies that they have on campus. This pushes the number in their Senate to about forty students.

One example of the difference that this makes in the functioning of the two governments is that instead of appointing or electing a Student Body Project Chairman, a Pops Chairman or a Campus Chest Chairman, as we do, the Luther Senate simply delegates these chairmanships out to certain brotherhoods or societies.

Each Has Points

There are certain advantages and disadvantages in each type of governmental structure, but there is no reason for elaborating on them. I do feel that students should be made aware of the different setups, and left to form their own opinions.

Gridders End Season's Action Today

By Paul Mardorf

Knights wind up what has been a dismal 1961 season at Pella today against Central College.

The Flying Dutchmen, boasting a 5-3 season record, should provide tough competition for the Knights, now 2-6.

Knight Head Coach Norm Johansen said this week, "I expect as much trouble from the Flying Dutchmen as we experienced against Dubuque last Saturday."

Knights May Win Third

Even with a win today the Knights will end the season with a 3-6 record, which is the worst won-loss record since 1956.

The line-up for the Knights will probably stay much the same with the exception that halfback Bill Fulcher may get the starting nod at left half.

Last week he saw only limited action at the Knights' 21-0 loss at the hands of the University of Dubuque.

Berry Is Terror

Scott Berry, Dubuque's 205-pound fullback, proved to be just too much for the Knights to handle. He scored two touchdowns and gained 145 yards on 20 carries.

The Spartans' first score came in the second period after a drive of 70 yards, with Berry and Maurice Waugh leading the attack.

Bill Carter, however, carried the ball across the goal line to put Dubuque in the lead.

Berry Scores Later

With only nine seconds left in the third quarter, Berry got loose on a 55-yard scamper to score.

Scoring at the end of a quarter seemed to be a habit for Berry, for with only seconds left in the final quarter, he scored from the 10-yard line.

The Jomen displayed the sputtering offense which has persisted throughout much of the season. Only once during the game did the Knights threaten to score but were halted because of a fumble deep in Dubuque territory.

The game was played on a damp field but under a bright sun. Attendance was far from a capacity crowd.

ONE THAT GOT away. Freshman Bob Nielsen fires a pass from the shotgun formation as two Spartans bear down on him.

PICKING UP SPLINTERS

Seniors Will Be Missed When Next Year Comes

By Paul Baumgarten

A bit of reflection late last Saturday afternoon made me realize what a loss Wartburg gridiron hopes for coming years will suffer when certain personnel take off their football suits for the last time this afternoon.

Baumgarten

My thoughts first took me to three men who, in my opinion, rank among the best ever in the Knight front wall. They are Don Sowers, Dennis Krominga and Jim Arjes.

Looking back through old Trumpets, I found that in his first game at Wartburg, Sowers was picked lineman of the week. It must be remembered that in this particular season such greats as Krueger, Reents, Wallin and Sahling formed one of the greatest forward walls ever seen here.

Sowers has gone on to become the Knight defensive leader. It will be quite disappointing if Don does not make the all-conference defensive unit.

□ □ □ □

Krominga and Arjes have on many occasions sparked the Knights this year with extremely good hard line play. As a freshman Krominga set a Knight record (still standing) of 19 extra points on a team that was 8-0-1 for the season.

He was out his sophomore year, but last year returned to be the third leading Wartburg scorer with 20 points.

He had little chance to do much scoring this year because of the inability of the Knights to cross or come close to the goal line very often. His rugged line play should give him a good chance at all-conference honors.

Moving to the backs and ends, I think this graduating class possesses some performers which might be missed more than many people realize.

Some consider halfback Lowell Junkman one of the best backs in the conference. He certainly possesses the size, speed and ability to be one of the best. He seems to have been held down by the lack of effective blocking.

Bob Mueller has shown Knight fans some good end play over the last two years. His all-conference chances are hurt, though, by the oversupply of exceptionally good ends in the league. Mueller should at least be awarded honorable mention, though.

□ □ □ □

Two remaining seniors, Larry Andersen and Jack McClelland, did not play as much as the others, but each offered his unique, important contribution.

Andersen's punting got the Knights out of many messy situations. When the future looked the darkest, "Andy" became the clutch ballplayer and made some of his best kicks.

McClelland, although not the best offensive threat in the world, gave the team leadership at quarterback that was sorely missed when he was hurt.

Granted, anyone can be replaced. The question remains: How capably?

Luther Wins First Place

By John Stumme

Luther turned in a strong team effort to win the Iowa Conference cross-country meet yesterday at the Waverly Golf course.

The most that can be said about Wartburg is that it was a gracious host. Besides providing weather good enough for golfing, Wartburg finished last for the second consecutive year. The harriers have also lost 19 straight duel meets.

Boyd Wins Again

Little Peter Boyd of Dubuque repeated as the individual champion, running the three miles in 16:04.7. Luther's Arden Root ran second in 16:09.

Wartburg's number one runner, Lothar Columbus, pulled a muscle on the second mile, forcing him to stop. Russ Leitz finished first for Wartburg and 13th in the meet. He ran the course in 17:50.

Luther Low With 40

Besides Root's number two finish, Luther Norsemen captured the 8, 9, 10 and 11 spots for a low score of 40. Dubuque and Simpson tied for second, totaling 57 points.

Two Simpson runners, Bob Kaldenberg and Ali Odeh, finished third and fourth. Dave Sage, Dubuque, ended fifth. Last year Odeh, a barefoot runer, was nosed out of first by Boyd, 15:42 to 15:42.5. But yesterday Odeh, troubled by an apparent backache, wasn't in Boyd's class.

Boyd Pulls Away

Boyd and Kaldenberg ran in stride for about the first two-and-a-half miles. Then Kaldenberg started to falter. Boyd moved out with his smooth, easy stride to finish five seconds ahead of Root, who overtook the faltering Kaldenberg.

Other Wartburg runners with their place of finish and their time were George Max, 20, 18:20; Fred Lichte, 27, 19:18; Don Judas, 29, 19:48; and Chuck Ditto, 33, 25:45.

Intramural Volleyball To Begin Next Week

Intramural volleyball is scheduled to begin next week, according to Dave Olson, IM director.

Another event coming up is the Turkey Run. Anyone wishing to participate should meet in front of the gym next Saturday at 10 a.m. The Turkey Run is a cross-country type event, covering about a half-mile, with the Wartburg campus as the course.

Prizes will be given to those who complete the course first. A turkey will be the first prize, with other prizes being offered by Waverly merchants.

IM dues of 75 cents will have to be paid in order to be able to compete, but as Olson added, "Seventy-five cents is pretty cheap for a turkey."

With the departure of Al Exner to the army reserves, Jim Ward, a junior, has taken over as student coordinator.

Du bist ein dumm Kopf! That is, you are one if you don't attend the Hans Sachs meeting next Tuesday night. Beginning at 7:30, the meeting will be held in Room 100, Old Main. This meeting is open to all German students and those of us who have registered for German but somehow haven't as yet made the grade as students.

All of you who get "that certain feeling" around the middle of the evening be sure to take note of the next meeting of the American Chemical Society — they're serving refreshments! All Tri-Beta members and anyone else who is hungry — I mean interested — is invited to meet on Tuesday night at Wartburg Hall Lounge at 7.

The speaker for the evening is Erwin Janssen, a Wartburg graduate who is now a senior at the University of Iowa Medical School. "Your Future in Medicine and Related Fields" is his topic for discussion.

• • • •

On Wednesday night the next meeting of Pi Sigma will be held. All members are asked to meet in Centennial Hall Lounge at 7:30.

The next SEA meeting will be on Monday night at 7:45 in the Little Theater. Mr. Baer, principal of Longfellow School in Waterloo, will speak on "The Ungraded Classroom." This topic really sounds interesting and progressive. Perhaps the dream of every student still has a chance of coming true — the ungraded grade.

Next Friday and Saturday is the Journalism Institute here on campus. Centering on the theme of "The Responsibility of a Free Press in a Troubled Society," the institute will feature several speakers, various workshops and a panel on "Career Opportunities in Journalism." This institute should be of interest to all those who are connected in some way with publications or are thinking of entering this field.

Fun night! After all those tests are you about ready to raise the roof? Then come to a place where you'll have lots of room to do so — Knights Gym. If you want to have fun and let off steam, be sure to be there between 7 and 10 tonight. Admission is only 15 cents, which includes refreshments. You can't beat that!

PW's To Meet Tues.

A meeting for students majoring in parish work and wishing employment after this school year will be held Tuesday at 4 p.m. in Room 203, Luther Hall.

Meetings concerning employment for students majoring in elementary, high school and music education will be held later in the year.

Two To Attend Personnel Conference

Earnest F. Oppermann, dean of students, and Pastor Herman Diers, campus chaplain, will represent the college at the annual Conference of Personnel Deans and Campus Pastors.
